Case: 19-30088 Doc# 6623 Filed: 04/03/20 Entered: 04/03/20 17:20:21 Page 1 of

PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas & Electric Company (the "Debtors" or "Appellees") submit this response to the March 20, 2020 filing by the Public Employees Retirement Association of New Mexico ("PERA" or the "Appellant") of its Statement of Issues and Designation of Items to be Included in the Record on Appeal [Dkt. No. 6397] (the "Statement") in connection with its Appeal from the Order (I) Denying Securities Lead Plaintiff's Motion to Apply Bankruptcy Rule 7023 to Class Proof of Claim and (II) Extending the Bar Date for Certain Holders of Securities Claims for Rescission or Damages [Dkt. No. 5943] (the "7023 Order") and the Memorandum Decision Regarding Motion to Apply Rule 7023 [Dkt. No. 5887] (the "7023 Opinion") by which the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of California (the "Bankruptcy Court") denied the Securities Lead Plaintiffs' Motion to Apply Bankruptcy Rule 7023 to Class Proof of Claim (the "7023 Motion"). The Appellees contend that the appeal should be dismissed because, inter alia, (1) the orders appealed from are not final, and (2) PERA failed to file a motion for leave to pursue an interlocutory appeal as required by Bankruptcy Rule 8004. However, in the event that this Court permits Appellant's appeal to proceed, the Appellees submit this response in an abundance of caution.

Response to Statement of Issues on Appeal

The Appellant's Statement of Issues on Appeal misstates the holding below. The Bankruptcy Court was asked to exercise its discretion and apply Bankruptcy Rule 7023 to allow a proof of claim filed by Appellant on behalf of a purported class. The Bankruptcy Court then exercised its discretion for reasons set out in detail in the 7023 Opinion to deny the 7023 Motion where it expressly considered the effect of granting the motion on the administration of the estate and found that "granting the Motion may result in more chaos than certainty." Rather than granting the relief requested by Appellant, and based largely on the likely adverse effect on the ongoing administration of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Bankruptcy Court instead decided to extend the deadline to file claims in the Chapter 11 Cases for potential claimants that are purported to be included in the class and required the Debtors to provide notice of that deadline to such parties, thus affording each potential claimant the opportunity to decide individually whether to file a proof of claim.

The issues on appeal, therefore, are as follows:

- 1. Whether the appeal of an interlocutory order in which the Bankruptcy Court exercised its discretion to deny a motion under Bankruptcy Rule 7023 to treat a proof of claim as a class proof of claim is a proper appeal from a final order.
- 2. Whether the Bankruptcy Court abused its discretion in denying a motion under Bankruptcy Rule 7023 to treat a proof of claim as a class proof of claim where it found, among other things, that granting the motion would create "chaos" for the administration of the Chapter 11 Cases.

Designation of Record on Appeal

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 8009, Appellees hereby designate the following additional items to be included in the record on appeal or as corrections to errors in the Appellant's Statement, which include all exhibits and addenda attached thereto and filed therewith and all documents incorporated by reference therein:
